We have a limited number of these items available, so they will be offered on a first come, first served basis.

All donations go directly to the Royal British Legion to help veterans, serving personnel, and their families. Please send your child in with a small amount of money if they would like to take part. Every contribution, big or small, helps make a difference.

Thank you for supporting this important cause and helping us remember together.

listen, support and inspire.

As a reading volunteer, you'll help our pupils build confidence, develop a love of reading and unlock their potential.

“ WHAT OUR VOLUNTEERS SAY

I've been a reading volunteer at Ludlow Junior School for three years and I love seeing the children's excitement as they master a tricky word or phrase. It's wonderful to see their confidence grow in such an important skill.

The teachers are friendly and thankful for the help the volunteers provide, and we are supported to really encourage a love of reading.

Volunteering is also an excellent way to experience school life if you are interested in roles within a school in the future. It's a rewarding opportunity to support young readers and become part of the school community.
